We carefully endeavored to trace up these reports and were finally led to believe them all false alarms.

The number of bills passed by the House and now awaiting action of the Senate is three hundred and sixty-nine, and the number of Senate bills awaiting the action of the House is 132, 99 of which are on the Speaker's table.

The West Virginia Constitution is to be submitted to the popular vote on the 22nd of August next and, if adopted, is to go into effect on the 1st of October following. ## Intelligence in regard to the Cincinnati Movement.

We publish the following letter from a Cincinnati correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, which journal, as every one knows, is strongly Grant. We give it, as it conveys an idea of doings in that city. It is dated the 26th inst., and says:

The only news of note to day is the arrival of a part of the Missouri delegation and of the half dozen managers of the fortunes of John M. Palmer, Governor Palmer's son and A. W. Edwards, editor of the Carlinville Democrat, were interviewed by me to day. They represent that Governor Palmer has made no effort to gather a mass meeting to come here and hurrah for him. Edwards said that Illinois will not send above five hundred people altogether, and they are about equally divided between Davis and Trumbull.

He says Davis cannot poll 20,000 votes in the State, that his strength there is factitious. Old-fashioned democrats oppose him because of his position on the legal tender decision. There is evidently no love lost between Davis and Palmer. As to Trumbull, Palmer friends allege he sent word to General Palmer by G. Brown, Sergeant-at-Arms, saying that he (Trumbull) wanted Palmer nominated, and would support him. After Trumbull made his big speech in New York, however, he was puffed up to believe he could be made President, and set a campaign of his own on foot, and run in Schurz and the Germans to support him. The Germans of Illinois are severe on Palmer for having signed the Adair bill, rendering saloon keepers and their landlords responsible for damages or sicknesses wrought by upon drunken men. The whole Western country, as far as the Germans are concerned, is excited on this Adair Law, which is now the rule in several States. Palmer's friends say that the whole German vote is lost without doubt. Schurz has carried all his countrymen, as the piper led off the school children. There is very little doubt that the Germans will come here divided between Trumbull and Brown. Many of the Ohio Germans have heard of Adams; but Schurz and Kerner they will not touch from. These gentlemen, Palmer and Davis, live in the same Congressional district. Palmer's friends say he is worth less than one hundred thousand dollars; that he will support Trumbull, Brown or Adams, and that my despatch of last night as to Fenton coming over to Palmer is well grounded. There is general distrust here, among the better liberals, of both Fenton and McClure. All the revenue reformers insist that no subterfuge be used on the tariff question, but that the Missouri resolutions must be incorporated in the platform. A Herald reporter called upon Col. Grosvener to day, who gave him the eccentric information that the 170 delegates just arrived from Missouri were all for Trumbull. Palmer men undoubtedly have confidence in some sort of compromise to be wrought out between Fenton and the Democrats.

It is noticed that the Palmer men discourage any effort to treat the protection question in the platform. A small Minnesota delegation came here to-day, all for Davis. The news from Chicago is that the reformers there will go for Adams if they find it impossible to nominate Trumbull. The only possibility of Adams' nomination is the union of the Western reform elements upon him, sinking the tariff issue. Horace White is reported as saying that, next to Trumbull, he will prefer Adams. The Democrats have abated a good deal of their arrogance. Robert Christy and others urge that every man prominently named for nomination is first class, and worthy of the Democratic support. Some of the more willful Democrats allege that the whole movement for Davis was a job contrived between Jim Robinson, the Chicago Times and George Morgan, of Ohio. The Democrats here generally dislike Davis, and his foolish vanity in wanting an inconsequential and honorary nomination against John Sherman, at Columbus, which nomination put a republican in the Senate for six years. They say that Morgan has been fiddling and courtesying around Davis for several months with his complimentary ballot at Columbus. Wash McLean said to-day that August Belmont, when here, had expressed satisfaction with Trumbull as the liberal candidate. The Free Trade League and Tax payers' Union will present a force to the Convention, a negotiation of revenue reform be made. There will be large arrivals to-morrow. The weather is delightful and Exposition Hall is now quite ready. The city is full of newspaper reporters. David Dudley Field has taken rooms here, to promote, it is said, whatever chances may arise for his brother, Justice Stephen J. Field.

There will be several negroes in the Convention. Fred Douglas comes here at Sumner's suggestion to get some declaration on Supplementary Civil Rights. Quite a number of Treasury clerks and others are in town for some mysterious purpose. A rumor prevails that James G. Blaine has made a coalition with Henry Wilson, and that the twin will try to carry the Philadelphia Convention upon the argument that Blaine can solidify the party, which is else irretrievably ruptured. A singular feature of the Cincinnati Convention is the fact that several avowed Grant men are on the reception committee, and have paid money liberally to make the gathering a success. The advocates of the Convention keep up tone and spirit, and steadily disregard any threats from the Democracy. They say that the Congressional Democrats have bargained with Davis, and are now trying to make the contract good, but after the Convention makes a choice, they will think better of their resentment and try to conclude new bargains with the lucky candidates.

The French half-breeds and the Canadian lumbermen, near Toronto, are about to resort to arms, the former desiring to prevent the latter from rafting down timber which they have cut by a special permit from the Dominion officials.

Since the commencement of the present session of Congress, the President has approved thirty-three bills which originated in the Senate and one hundred and twenty in the House. Several bills of a private character were vetoed.

Specie in the Bank of France increased 3,000,000 francs last week.

A state of siege has been declared in Honduras.

FOR SALE.

WARREN HOTEL.

In consequence of old age and infirm health for the last seventeen years, and not being able to attend to the duties of a hotel, I have resolved to sell the above property. It is located in the town of Warren, Warren county, N. C. The hotel contains some thirty rooms, and all necessary out-houses, and can accommodate from 50 to 75 guests comfortably. It is the only public house in the village. Warren is celebrated for its healthfulness, good society and schools. There are four churches of different denominations in the village, and it has been for many years a favorite resort of persons seeking health in summer and fall. This property will be sold lower than any property of the kind ever offered to the public. I deem it useless to give a further description of the property, as any person desiring to purchase, can come and examine the premises. I am determined to sell. The hotel will continue open for the reception of the traveling public, and I invite all health seekers, in the summer, to call upon me. My terms are the moderate sum of $10,000. For particulars, call on Mrs. M. M. BROWNLOW, at 20-1m Petersburg "Index" copy one month and send bill to subscriber.

THOSE FOOTSTEPS.

In the quiet hush of the tender night,
When my eyes fill up with all golden bright,
Come my darling to me, all golden bright,
With the sunshine of three sweet years.
And he smiles as he climbs to a seat on my knee,
To whisper his childish mirth;
Then clasps my neck—though you may not see,
For my darling is not of earth.
Only within the twilight gloom,
When the hours are long and sweet,
I hear all about in the lonely room
The patter of little feet—
Patter of feet that come and go,
With a sweet yet restless will,
Just as they did a month ago,
Ere they grew forever still.
And my heart at those spirit sounds that seem
So near yet so far away,
Glides into the faith of a sweet love dream,
That follows me night and day.
And this love dream, tender and ever sweet,
Still whispers soft and low—
"Keep thou in thy heart those tiny feet,
And follow the way they go."
Then my sorrow sinks down as a leaflet
Will,
When the winds are into their rest;
And I bow with clasped hands and still
The footsteps are in my breast.

The Task of Women.

Great indeed is the task assigned to women; who can elevate its dignity? Not to make laws, not to lead armies, not to govern empires; but to form those by whom laws are made, armies led and empires governed; to guard against the slightest taint of bodily infirmity, the frail yet spotless creature whose moral, no less than physical, being must be derived from her; to inspire those principles, to inculcate those doctrines, to animate those sentiments, which generations yet unborn, and nations yet uncivilized shall learn to bless; to soften firmness into mercy, and chasten honor into refinement; to exalt generosity into virtue; by a soothing care, to allay the anguish of the body, and the far worse anguish of the mind; by her tenderness to disarm passion; by her purity to triumph over sense; to cheer the scholar sinking under his toil; to console the statesman for the ingratitude of a mistaken people; to be compensation for friends that are perfidious for happiness that has passed away. Such is her vocation. The couch of the tortured sufferer, the prison of the deserted friend, the crosses of the rejected Saviour—these are theatres on which her greatest triumphs have been achieved. Such is her destiny; to visit the forsaken, to attend the neglected when monarchs abandon, when counsellors betray, when injustice persecute, when brethren and disciples flee, to remain unshaken and unchanged; and to exhibit in this lower world a type of that love, pure, constant, and ineffable, which in another world we are taught to believe the task of virtue.

A TALL MUSQUITO—So you are going to the East Indies, day of Mrs. Maroon's purpose of my darling, crown-candidate for said an old Irish ped that the young wife of a soldier tricked to embark for Madras. "I've been in them parts myself, and well do I remember the torments I went through night and day, with the mosquitoes. They have long suckers hanging down from their heads, they'll draw the life out of you before you can say peas." This terrifying account lived in the memory of the young woman; the vessel made Madras roads, the decks were soon crowded; all hands delighted at the sight of land, Mrs. Maroon with them; but her joy was of short duration; for, on shore, she perceived an elephant. Horror-stricken at the sight, and in breathless agitation, she approached the mate, exclaiming, with uplifted hands, "Holy mother, is that a mosquito?"

A recently married man in Franklin county, Mass., coming home rather late the other night, took an umbrella from the rack in the hall and proceeded to his room. The grieving and indignant wife opened her eyes and seeing her husband supporting himself by the foot-board with one hand holding an umbrella spread with the other, cried in astonishment: "What are you doing? Are you crazy?" "No," said he in an unsteady voice, "but—hic—I supposed there'd be a storm—hic—and so I've come prepared for it."

A gentleman who was staying at a sea side hotel during the summer, expressed his dissatisfaction to his landlady of the heavy charges in his bill, "Well you see," she said, "our season is so very short that we are obliged to make hay while the sun shines." "That may be all very true, my good woman," replied the visitor; "but though I know all flesh is grass, I decidedly object to being made hay of."

It is better for parents to instruct their children and seek to make home happy, than it is to charm strangers and amuse friends.

The true christian is encouraged in his course by the assurance that the more he really prays, the less he will sin.

It is not until we have passed through the furnace that we are made to know how much dross was in our composition.

We mount to Heaven mostly on the ruins of our cherished schemes, finding our failures were successes.

Repentance without amendment is like continual pumping in a ship without stopping the leak.

If a man wants to know the strength of evil, let him abandon it.

GUANO GUANO!

WALNUT HILL, N. C., Feb. 16, 1872.

Messrs. A. G. Lee & Co., Raleigh.

GENTLEMEN—By your request, I herewith

submit the result of an experiment on cotton,

with different kinds of Guano purchased of you last season. I planted twenty rows, using on the lot four nothing.

On the 2nd four, 4 lbs of Peruvian.

" 4th " " Bat.

" 5th " " Bat.

vian mixed (1-5 Peruvian and 4-5 Phosphate)

the belt of land all being of the same quality.

The Guanos were all accurately weighed when put in, the cotton carefully weighed

from each set of rows when picked out,

and the cost of each kind of Guano correctly calculated, with interest at 5 per cent.

per annum added. Taking the first four rows (without Guano) as a basis, the following is the result:

Net profit on the 2nd four

(Phosphate), on the money laid out, 71 1/2 per cent.

Net loss on the 3rd four (Peruvian), on the money laid out, 10 1/2 per cent.

Net loss on the 4th four (Bat) on the money laid out, 30 1/2 per cent.

Net profit on the 5th four (vian mixture) on the money laid out, 94 per cent.

The cotton was put at 6 1/2 cents per pound in the seed.

Very respectfully yours,

A. T. MIAL.

We can furnish all the above kinds of

Guano here at the following rates for cash:

Peruvian Guano, 57 1/2 per ton.

Patapasco Guano, 57 1/2 per ton.

Wando Fertilizer, 58 00 per ton.

Phosphate of Lime, 55 00 per ton.

Soluble Sea Island Guano, 61 00 per ton.

Zeol's Ammoniated super-phosphate, 57 50 per ton.

Maryland Cotton Food, 57 50 per ton.

Parties desiring it can get any of the above

on time at a small advance on the above

prices, by making arrangements with us.
